Montmartre, an open-top theater

It all starts at the top of the funicular, the moment that the guide, Jean Jacques de la Tour, takes a photo of his group of visitor-spectators and discovers a spirit: a strange woman is in the photo, but who is she? In search of the mysterious “Beautiful Gabrielle”, the group will follow their eloquent and learned guide who will explain the history, the legends and the anecdotes of the Mound.

Along their path, he will tell you the stories of the different characters from the Belle Époque; the “poulbots” (urchins), Amedeo Modigliani, Picasso, Braque, Utrillo, “Valentin le Désossé”, “La Goulue” and many more.

Discover the “Sacré Cœur”, the Dali Museum, « Le bateau lavoir », « le passe-muraille », « le Cabaret du Lapin Agile », « le Moulin de la Galette » and of course the vineyards of Montmartre

Set off in search of the Beautiful Gabrielle, the Moulin Rouge dancer, and with our guide, discover the Mound like a real theater play.
